

COUTTS LONDON JEWELLERY WEEK

13th February 2008

COUTTS LONDON JEWELLERY WEEK IS UNVEILED

On Wednesday 13th February Coutts London Jewellery Week will be officially launched to the media with a glittering event at the OXO Tower, bejewelling its iconic windows as two sparkling diamond rings and ruby red valentine's kiss.

Some of our finest talent will be attending the media lunch as spokespeople for the week itself.

Michael Wainwright - Boodles

Theo Fennell - Theo Fennell

Nadja Swarovski - Swarovski

Shaun Leane - Shaun Leane

Hannah Martin - Hannah Martin

Taking place from 11-15 June this year, Coutts London Jewellery Week will be the first time that the jewellery industry has united to showcase the UK's status as one of the leading centres of global excellence for jewellery.

The Week has been designed to be an industry-wide celebration of all things jewellery, bringing together leading names and cutting edge designers, ultimately conveying the allure and diversity of British jewellery and creating a legacy for our talent. From Hatton Garden to Knightsbridge, Bond Street to Green Street, the event will offer the public a journey of discovery into the wonderful world of jewellery across London, from established designers to undiscovered treasures exhibiting at numerous locations across the capital, including the Tower of London and Cockpit Arts.

SOME OF THE DIVERSE EVENTS TAKING PLACE DURING THE WEEK INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING:

- Runway Rocks Catwalk show with Swarovski
- Theo Fennell - showcasing designs in each of their four outlets and exhibiting the work of Royal College of Art Jewellery and Silversmithing awards
- Exhibition for 60 designers at the Tower of London
- Stephen Webster hosting star-studded rock and roll party
- Seminars in gemstones by GIA
